Collecting your information

We collect your information when you fill in membership application or renewal forms, and competition event entry forms. You can give us your information using paper forms or online forms. The information you give us may include your contact details (name, address, telephone number, email address), personal information and identifiers (date of birth, membership number, competition licence number), and other information (vehicle details, etc). When you give us information about another person, such as a child, parent, guardian, or emergency contact you should let that person know that you have given us the information.

If you are under 18 years old, we will also ask for information from your parent or guardian.

Using your information

We use your information when you first apply to become a member of RSAC Motorsport Limited and thereafter to administer and renew your club membership, and provide you with member benefits. We also use your information when you enter club events. For competitions, we may publish some of your information in the programme, the results and other official event documentation, which will be in the public domain. Your information is used in these ways to fulfil our contract with you.

We may ask you for emergency contact and next of kin details which we will only use in an emergency, and which is use for a legitimate interest. You should let the contact and next of kin know that you have given this information to us.

We will not send you marketing messages. We will not sell your information to another organisation.

To support your lifetime relationship with motor sport and RSAC Motorsport Limited we may keep your information indefinitely. Unless we are required to retain information by relevant legislation, we will, at your request, delete your personal data from our system.

Sharing your information

We may share your information with Motorsport UK as required by its General Regulations for governing motor sport, with other Motorsport UK Registered Clubs, with medical personnel, or any other person if we have to comply with a legal obligation. We may also share your information with service providers, for example to print programmes and other rally documentation.

Our website

The club website might contain links to other websites such as online entry and payment sites, partners, and advertisers. If you follow links to other websites please review the privacy policy for each site because we are not responsible for information you share on those sites.

Security for your information

Your information is held securely by us. We have taken all reasonable steps, and have in place appropriate security measures, to protect your information.

Your rights

- You are entitled to a copy of the information we hold about you, and to ask us to correct any inaccuracies.
- You may ask us to stop using your information, and to delete it, although we may maintain a skeleton set of your information. If you ask us to do this we will not be able to continue any contact with you.
- You may make a complaint to the Information Commissioner (www.ico.org.uk).

This privacy notice was last updated on 12 August 2025, and we will communicate any changes to you.
